TRINITY AGAINST WESLEYAN TO-MORROW.

First Foot Ball Meeting in the Last Three Years.

THE 1907 FOOT BALL SQUAD.

The game to-morrow promises to be distinctive in more ways than one. It is the first meeting on the grid-iron, for three years of the old rivals, Trinity and Wesleyan, which, if the weather man is good to us at all, means probably the largest crowd ever on Trinity field. The undergraduates intend to do their best in the cheering and singing line, and to assist them Hatch's Military Band has been engaged through a subscription taken up from all the students. Practically all Wesleyan and a good part of Middletown are expected to come up with the team, and it certainly is up to Trinity to prove that they can excel them on the bleachers as well as on the field.

Looking over the prospective line-ups a slight comparison of the opposing men might not be out of order. As far as weight goes there is but little difference, although Wesleyan is a little heavier on the average. In the back field Trinity excels in offensive play, Henshaw, Xanders and Maxson being the fastest and best combination of ground gainers Trinity has ever had. With respect to defensive play the teams are about even. In the quarterback position the dope all favors Trinity, as in Pond they have a man who for all-round offensive and defensive work cannot be beaten, and this taken into consideration together with his ability as a kicker, field-general, and open field runner, certainly seems to give him the advantage over Farraday of Wesleyan, although the latter is fast and excellent at catching and running back kicks. At end Wesleyan excels, as both

Douglas and Finley are both good, sure men, and wonderfully fast at getting down under kicks, but with such a fine bunch of ends as Collins, Mason, Budd and Ramsdell to choose from, Trinity need have but little fear here. In the line, Trinity's three center men, although lighter than their opponents, seem to make on the whole a stronger combination, and it will be hard work to keep them from breaking through. But at tackle will come the real contest of the day, as here Taylor and Jay of Wesleyan are opposed to Donnelly and Carroll and to pick the better pair is impossible before the actual play, but every Trinity man has his opinion, and we hope and believe it will be verified. The line-up will probably be as follows:—

Wesleyan		Trinity
Douglas	le	Ramsdell
Jay	lt	Carroll
Heddenburg	lg	George Buck
Doe	c	Thaxter
Tompkins	rg	Grove Buck
Taylor (c)	rt	Donnelly (c)
Finley	re	Collins
Farraday	qb	Pond
Munson	lhb	Maxson
Gildersleeve	rhb	Henshaw
Van Tassel	fb	Xanders

The records of the two teams follow:
Wesleyan 17, Middlebury 0.
Wesleyan 0, Yale 25.
Wesleyan 0, Princeton 53.
Wesleyan 5, Vermont 10.
Wesleyan 0, Tufts 23.

Trinity 26, Worcester Tech. 0.
Trinity 0, West Point 12.
Trinity 0, Amherst 11.

MASS MEETING FOR WESLEYAN GAME.

Songs and Cheers for the Football Team.

In preparation for the Wesleyan game, nearly every man in college assembled last night, in Alumni Hall to practice songs and cheers for Saturday. Professors Flynn and Gettels of the faculty addressed the students in a stirring way emphasizing the necessity of united work by those in the grandstand in the way of singing and cheering. Coach Landefeld and Captain Donnelly of the football team spoke of Trinity's great chance of victory but both stated that there was to be no feeling of over-confidence.

After the speaking the students spent an hour in rehearsing the several songs which have been prepared for the game. Especial attention was paid in practice, to a new marching song written by Mr. W. B. Davis, the Glee Club instructor. Mr. Merrill of the faculty has composed excellent words to the piece and from the way the men sang last night it would seem that Trinity will be able to shine in mass-singing as well as in the game itself.

The words of the song are as follows:

When the sunshine softly falls
And the scent of the earth is new
Then farewell to college halls
And a cheer for the Gold and Blue.

Chorus.

So march along,
Good hearts and strong,

And hail triumph nigh!
The Blue and Gold
Till time is old
Shall e'er float on high.
In joyous song
The strain prolong
And make glad reply,
With a "Trin!" "Trin!" "Trin!",
For we're bound to win
And we shout for victory.

Though the north wind shrill without
And the fire blaze warm in bield,
Fling away dull books and shout
For the joys of the open field.
Chorus:—

MEETING OF THE TRUSTEES.

There will be a meeting of the Board of Trustees of Trinity College to-morrow at half past twelve o'clock. It is hoped that many of the members of the board will attend the Wesleyan-Trinity football game later in the afternoon.

DR. EDWARDS' LECTURE.

Tuesday afternoon in the Natural History Building, Dr. Edwards delivered a highly interesting lecture on "Corals and Life in the Sub-Tropics" to a small but appreciative audience of students and a few townspeople for whom the hour was convenient for attendance. Those present were told about the various theories of coral formations, the different kinds of corals and about the many kinds of fish which are found in and about coral atolls. The most interesting part of the lecture was the description of the life in the Bahama Islands. Dr. Edwards has made several trips to this wonderful group for scientific study and was able to give one an excellent idea about the structure of the islands themselves, and the social and religious life of the inhabitants there.

It is to be regretted that more did not avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing this lecture.

FOUR SOPHOMORES SUSPENDED FOR HAZING.

The faculty took definite action at its meeting Wednesday afternoon on the matter of hazing by the sophomore class. Evidence having been found that certain sophomores were actively engaged in a recent affair in which A. T. Berman a freshman was hazed and rather roughly handled, four men from the sophomore class were suspended for six weeks.

The Wesleyan Argus says: "It is only fair to the alumni and friends of the college to state the situation clearly. In the first place, the number of really good men is smaller than usual, and with several of these laid up, the team is severely crippled. In fact, the number of line men is so small that the coach is barely able to maintain a strong eleven. Consequently it becomes a question whether or not the necessary scrimmage should be held, lest some of the line men should be injured."

EDITORIAL.

The Leader of the Herd.

The following is a clipping from the Wall Street Journal of October 24th, which will interest Trinity men on account of Mr. Morgan's connection with Trinity as a trustee:

"Yesterday was J. P. Morgan day. Any stag will do for a leader when a herd of deer finds that the feeding is good and when there are no danger signals hung out in the forest.

"But when the hounds are yelping and the rifles are talking the death language, then the deer that is a rank-and-filer at heart huddles back with the herd, and the old leader comes to the front. The deer come to his heels with a rush. He is the leader and there is no doubt about it."

The following is an article which recently appeared in the Philadelphia-North American under the head, "Nature lovers are first tenants on the Bellevue roof. Federal Judge Buffington, an open-air guest, likes it."

They retired to their unique quarters, far above the street level, late last night, as they had done the night before. Both were enthusiastic over their first night's experience.

Before going up to his tent last night, Judge Buffington said:

"Did I enjoy it? Isn't it a sufficiently affirmative answer to see me going back again to-night? Yes, indeed, we spent a delightful night on the roof. High above the rifts of fog, which could be seen floating over the city, the air was pure and delicious to breathe. The bright moon shining down on us as we were retiring added a bit of poetry to the incident, while the entire absence of noise made sleep a genuine pleasure.

Welcomes Return to Nature.

"So far as open-air sleeping is concerned, I am accustomed to that to some extent, and I regard it as not a freak idea at all, or a momentary pleasure, but a health-giving, health-preserving return to nature. Up in Canada this summer I slept in tents most all the time. But, of course, I was on the ground and caught some of the damp, which is entirely absent on the roof of the Bellevue-Stratford.

"The fact is that pure fresh air at night, as well as in the day, is essential to good health, and the time is coming when no one who can help it will sleep in closed, stuffy rooms."

It was suggested to Judge Buffington that Sunday night was piping cold in Broad street, and he was asked if he didn't wear a nightcap sleeping in the open above.

"No, indeed, I didn't," laughingly answered the judge, "nor did I take one before I ascended."

"How about your face, judge? I suppose you had color in it?"

"That question reminds me of the Indian, who, barefooted, met the Prince of Wales, now King Edward, in Washington forty years ago.

"The prince said: 'John, how do you stand this cold weather without shoes on your feet?' The Indian put his finger on the prince's cheek and said: 'Does that get cold?' Receiving a negative reply, the Indian said: 'Then me all cheek.'

"And so it was with me last night, except that Manager McCormack supplied a sufficient number of heavy blankets to cover my feet, and my cheeks, too."

Hotel Imports Its Own Forest.

Although Judge Buffington and his nephew formally opened the tented roof camp Sunday night, it was not available to the public until last night, when five of the six tents were occupied. It is intended to install more tents as the demand increases.

The roof has the appearance of a lofty mountain camp. Around the tented square dozens of Pike county pine and hemlock trees have been placed, and the only startling reminders of urban life are the electric lights and push button which brings a boy in a few seconds. The hot coffee and rolls, which are brought at 7 o'clock, also convinces the sleeper that he is not in the Adirondacks or Rockies.

The assembly Wednesday afternoon was devoted to the interests of Phi Kappa Phi honorary fraternity. The program opened with organ music, after which Dean George F. Mills, president of the Massachusetts agricultural college chapter of Phi Kappa Phi, introduced Prof. E. A. Grosvenor of Amherst College and president of Phi Beta Kappa honorary fraternity, as the speaker of the afternoon. Prof. Grosvenor spoke of the place of the college honorary fraternity as a part of the broadening college life, and then outlined briefly the history of the founding of Phi Beta Kappa at William and Mary College in 1776, and sketched its later history as the fortunes of William and Mary rose and fell, until in 1883 the fraternity had 24 chapters, and to-day has a chapter in 71 colleges and universities in the United States. The increasing popularity of the fraternity led to a decision of the fraternity authorities that only academic colleges should be admitted to the roll of chapters, and this decision led directly to the founding of another honorary fraternity, Phi Kappa Phi, in institutions of a technical nature.

'60—The Rev. Dr. C. H. W. Stöcking, while visiting Europe this summer, has been the guest of Père Hyacinthe in Geneva, of the archbishop of Upsala, and of Prince Oscar of Sweden.

At the recent meeting of the Hartford Club, W. D. Morgan '72, was elected president.

The second meeting of New York Trinity men will be held on Monday evening, November 4th, at 7 p. m., at Keen's English Chop House, 70 W 36th street. All Trinity men are welcome. Bring your friends, and come when you like, eat what you like, and go when you can tear yourself away.

Hobart Warren Thompson '83 visited college recently.

By the election of Rev. Robert L. Paddock '94 as missionary bishop of Eastern Oregon, Trinity adds one more to her list of bishops. Bishop Paddock has been for several years engaged among the poorer classes of lower New York, and was rector of the Church of the Holy Apostles, 300 Ninth avenue. He made himself well-known in his fight against the corrupt police of New York, and was made one of the committee of fifteen to fight vice.

Among the undergraduates he was exceptionally well known, having visited college frequently, and also taken some around the slums in New York.

'99—Rev. Chas B. Hedrick, who was ordained to the diaconate in Colorado Springs, Colo., on June 11th, is now assisting at St. Peter's Church, Denver. Mr. Hedrick expects to take up work at his home in Florida in a few weeks. His present address is 227 W 4th avenue, Denver, Colo.

The address of J. B. Kilbourn ex-'09, is 110 West Saratoga street, Baltimore, Maryland.

INTER-COLLEGIATE NOTES.

At the university of Kansas a physician has been appointed to look after sick students away from home, to consult with students in all matters relating to health, and to prevent, when possible, trivial matters from becoming serious; to provide necessary medical services gratuitously to those who are making their way through the university; to work with the university health committee in seeking out and eliminating special sources of infection, and in preventing the spread of infectious and contagious diseases among the students of the university.

With the opening of the 154th academic year of Columbia university the university authorities saw in full operation for the first time a method they have devised to bring the faculty in closer contact with the students. For more than two years President Butler has had the plan under consideration, which as it has finally been developed, approaches the preceptorial system in force at Princeton and other universities.

Messrs. H. S. Wilcox '08 and A. S. Kean '09 are organizing a co-operative laundry to be managed for the benefit of Trinity students.

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company,

HARTFORD, CONN.,

Why should I insure my life?

Because it is a debt you owe to those who are dependent upon your earnings for their support.

You admit that it is your duty to supply their needs from day to day, but forget that it is equally your duty to provide an ever ready and sufficient equivalent for your earning power, which your family stands in constant jeopardy to lose by your premature death.

Guard your family against disaster and yourself against dependency in old age.

When should I insure my life?

Now! The cost will never be less, and to-morrow you may not be able to obtain insurance at any price.

Even if others are not now dependent upon you, take time by the forelock and you will be the better able to meet future responsibilities, and at a smaller premium.

Where shall I insure my life?

In a purely Mutual Company.
In a company that earns, declares, and pays annual dividends.
In a company that is doing a conservative business.

Such a Company is The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn. It furnishes perfect protection at lowest cost.

For further information, address the Company, or any of its agents.

Willis James, the New York philanthropist.

The girl students of Willamette University, Oregon, held their annual field meet at 5 o'clock in the morning a week ago last Wednesday. Some of the events were run in surprisingly good time, but the young ladies fell considerably below the national records in the weights and jumps. The pole vault reached the height of 4 feet. The high jump was 3 feet 8 inches. The hammer was thrown 48 feet and the discus 23. The running broad jump was a little more than 11 feet.

$8.50 PUNCTURE-PROOF TIRES ONLY $4.80
Regular Price $8.50 per pair. To Introduce We Will Sell You a Sample Pair for Only 4.80

NAILS, TACKS OR GLASS WON'T LET OUT THE AIR
(CASH WITH ORDER $4.55)

NO MORE TROUBLE FROM PUNCTURES.

Result of 15 years experience in tire making. No danger from THORNS, CACTUS, PINS, NAILS, TACKS or GLASS. Serious punctures, like intentional knife cuts, can be vulcanized like any other tire.

Two Hundred Thousand pairs now in actual use. Over Seventy-five Thousand pairs sold last year.

DESCRIPTION: Made in all sizes. It is lively and easy riding, very durable and lined inside with a special quality of rubber, which never becomes porous and which closes up small punctures without allowing the air to escape. We have hundreds of letters from satisfied customers stating that their tires have only been pumped up once or twice in a whole season. They weigh no more than an ordinary tire, the puncture resisting qualities being given by several layers of thin, specially prepared fabric on the tread. That "Holding Back" sensation commonly felt when riding on asphalt or soft roads is overcome by the patent "Basket Weave" tread which prevents all air from being squeezed out between the tire and the road thus overcoming all suction. The regular price of these tires is $8.50 per pair, but for advertising purposes we are making a special factory price to the rider of only $4.80 per pair. All orders shipped same day letter is received. We ship C.O.D. on approval. You do not pay a cent until you have examined and found them strictly as represented.

We will allow a cash discount of 5 per cent (thereby making the price $4.55 per pair) if you send FULL CASH WITH ORDER and enclose this advertisement. We will also send one nickel plated brass hand pump and two Sampson metal puncture closers on full paid orders (these metal puncture closers to be used in case of intentional knife cuts or heavy gashes). Tires to be returned at OUR expense if for any reason they are not satisfactory on examination.

We are perfectly reliable and money sent to us is as safe as in a bank. Ask your Postmaster, Banker, Express or Freight Agent or the Editor of this paper about us. If you order a pair of these tires, you will find that they will ride easier, run faster, wear better, last longer and look finer than any tire you have ever used or seen at any price. We know that you will be so well pleased that when you want a bicycle you will give us your order. We want you to send us a small trial order at once, hence this remarkable tire offer.

COASTER-BRAKES, built-up wheels, saddles, pedals, parts and repairs, and prices charged by dealers and repair men. Write for our big SUNDRY catalogue.

DO NOT WAIT but write us a postal today. DO NOT THINK OF BUYING A bicycle or a pair of tires from anyone until you know the new and wonderful offers we are making. It only costs a postal to learn everything. Write it NOW.
